

Connecticut Tree Climbing Competition 2017

Saturday, May 6th – 8:00 am to 4:00 pm at Harrybrooke Park in New Milford

The purpose of the competition is to showcase

Tree Care Safety and Tree Climbing Skills

among Connecticut's Tree Care Workers.

Events

- Secured Foot Lock
- Throw Line Accuracy
- Belayed Speed Climb
- Work Climb Station
- Aerial Rescue
- Master's Challenge

Twenty-five professional tree care workers will participate in this event.

The competitors will demonstrate their skills in:

- the use of ropes to climb up into the crown of the tree
- move quickly and efficiently through the crown of the tree
 - work aloft while being both safe and careful
 - being creative in accomplishing tree care tasks

The top Connecticut male and female competitors will be invited to compete in the ISA New England Climbing Competition of 2017.

Come on out and see what this event is all about!!

Spectators are welcome!

The event is free and open to the public.

For details, please visit the CTPA Web Site – www.CTPA.org

The Connecticut Tree Protective Association is a non-profit educational association dedicated to advancing the care of Connecticut's trees. It currently has over 800 members and is a strong supporter of the Connecticut Arborist license.

