The CTPA in 2023-2024

The CTPA recap for the year July 2023 to June 2024. The association was busy!

The Summer Meeting took place on July 20, 2023 at the Farmington Club and the CTPA had a great lineup of speakers and good weather. Jeremy Slone, Ph.D., from Bartlett Tree Experts, Charlotte, NC gave a talk on Field Diagnostics and Pests to Look Out For. This talk helped attendees look at trees and plants to access possible biotic and abiotic causes and symptoms. The next talk was a safety and practical talk on Real World Aerial Rescue Consideration by Shawn Emmons, Emmons Tree Service and Kevin Lunnie, Vector Rescue. Kevin Brewer, Arborjet, gave a talk on Adapting Your PHC Program to a Changing Climate and Tom Ingersall and Allan Fenner, took people on a Walkin' and Talkin' Trees: A Live and Interactive Monitoring and Assessment Tour. And to round out the day, there were two Spanish featured talks given by Leo Roldan, Davey Tree Experts and Pepe Ramirez, Davey Tree Experts. Leo's talk, in Spanish, was an Overview of Electrical Hazards, What is Low Voltage?. Pepe's talk, also in Spanish, was Chainsaw Safety and Operations.

There were 693 adults and 12 children in attendance. There were 47 exhibitors in attendance and the food was plentiful! Each fall Arboriculture 101 is held starting in September and ending at the beginning of December. This highly successful and consistently popular CTPA offering is geared towards those who want to take the next step in their career in arboriculture, especially those who would like to earn their arborist license. Arboriculture 101 is a 13 week course, one night a week for 3 hours, that is taught by scientists from the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station, professionals from DEEP and practicing arborists. The course is continually at its capacity. It provides a rich blend of arboricultural understanding for all who take the course.

The Fall course was held at Jones Auditorium at the New Haven Agricultural Experiment Station. The CTPA is very grateful for the support and understanding of the experiment station, the students and the instructors. There were 43 in the Fall 2023 class and 41 students in the Winter 2024 class. Each year, students that pay for the class are welcomed back at any time in the future. They may take all the classes over again, or come and sit through those classes they feel they need more time to study. The goal of the program is for students to leave the program feeling confident in the field of arboriculture. The aim of each class is to have 40 enrollees and as many returning students as we can fit in the room.

For the previous two Arboriculture 101 courses, an average of 80% missed 3 or fewer of the 13 sessions. These 80% then receive a Certificate of Completion for the course. Following the class, students are encouraged to register with DEEP to take the Arborist E-Licensing Exam, which many do, as they then go on to earn their license. The online exam is new to Connecticut and will allow the students to take the exams at their pace. The second and third legs of the exam, Tree Identification and the Oral exam will continue to be in person every three months by the Tree Examining Board. The Electrical Hazard Awareness Program (EHAP) was held on November 2, 2023 at the Eversource Berlin Campus. There were 117 people in attendance. The EHAP workshop give by CTPA is no longer affiliated with TCIA. If you need to be certified for TCIA, you need to contact TCIA. Emmett Shutts, David Ross, and Doug Pistawka were the speakers for the day and Marianne Bonito, Federal OSHA, gave a brief talk on statistics for tree workers, especially around power lines. We appreciate and thank Eversource for their continued support in the program.

On January 18, 2024, CTPA held its 102th Annual Meeting at the AquaTurf Club.

The CTPA started the Annual Meeting with the business meeting and this is where new officers and board members are elected. Michael Almstead of Almstead Tree and Shrub Company was voted in as President, Emmett Shutts of Davey Tree Experts was voted in as Vice-President and Sean Redding from Eversource was voted in as Secretary-Treasurer. The remainder of the board staying the same as 2023 with the exception of Pat Flynn stepping down. Thank you Pat for all your hard work and great leadership with the CTPA Board of Directors. After the business meeting and before the first talk, Brian Fain, Ferguson and McQuire Insurance, took a few minutes to talk about what people need to know for having a proper Certificate of Insurance. The first talk was by Emery Gluck, Retired State Forester on Restoring Pitch Pine in Connecticut. Next, Polly Weigand, Westhamp-ton, NY talked about Southern Pine Beetle Management for Urban Landscapes. Before lunch the awards were given to the recipients. After lunch, people settled in to hear up-dates from DEEP and the Agricultural Experiment Stations. To round the day off, Dr. Claire Rutledge talked about Hope for Connecticut's Ash Trees. There were plenty of vendors to talk to and purchase much needed items.

The CTPA in 2023-2024

The registration for the day totalled 621 attendees and 46 exhibitors .

CTPA remains strong at over 728 Regular Members and 39 Allied Members.

Arbor Day was April 26, 2024 and the kids that won the poster contest had an extra treat by going to the Beardsley Zoo. The committee holds an annual poster contest open to all fifth graders in the State of Connecticut. Of all the towns that participated, 12 winners were chosen from 80 posters submitted. The Arbor Day ceremony took place at 10am at The Beardsley Zoo in Bridgeport. To start the morning off, a news station did a feature report with the kids planting a tree in the zoo. The director of the zoo, gave the kids a quick history of the tree that was taken down and the tree that they were planting to take it's place. After the planting, each poster winner was presented with their framed poster, a booklet of all the poster winners and a bag of goodies, the student told the crowd about their favorite tree. After the poster ceremony, the Zoo Director, took the kids, family and friends on a VIP tour of the zoo and a ride on the carousal. There were approximately 40 people in attendance including students, teachers, parents and a few from the CTPA. Thank you to Stacey Marcell, Northeast Horticulture Services, and her amazing crew for planning the special day.

The Climbing Competition was held on May 4, 2024 at Sea-side Park ,Bridgeport CT. The competition had 27 climbers and 40 volunteers. The day was long but the weather was beautiful with clear skies and a nice breeze. The park was a great place to bring family and friends to see climbers compete and hopefully, to go the New England Competition. In the end, Jake Slade won the Master's Challenge followed by Tim Reynolds and Sam Shunk. We would like to give a big round of applause and thank you to all those people that volunteered for Work Day, Set Up Day and Competition Day. This event could not take place without all the people that volunteer!

While CTPA Committees are chaired by members of the Board of Directors, all interested Regular Members are invited and encouraged to participate.

CTPA Committees
Mission Statements

Arbor Day Committee

The Arbor Day Committee will enhance public awareness of the importance of trees and tree care through pursuit of the following goals:

The preparation and presentation, annually, of an Arbor Day celebration of the highest possible quality.

A continued increase in the number of student participants in the Connecticut Tree Protective Association's annual Arbor Day "My Favorite Tree" Poster Contest .

Participation by our membership in Arbor Day events.

The incorporation of as many aspects of tree care as is possible during the commemoration of Arbor Day.

The creation of an Arbor Day celebration that ensures ease of access to the greatest number of people.

Education Committee

The Education Committee functions to provide educational opportunities for those involved in tree care in Connecticut. For tree workers who wish to gain their arborist license, the Committee provides the means to help them towards their goal. For licensed arborists, the Committee offers opportunities for professional advancement. For those new to tree care, the Committee provides basic instruction and some guidelines on how to advance in the field.

This Committee does its work primarily through the offering of workshops and seminars outside of those offered during the Summer and Annual Meetings. Both one-day and multi-session workshops are offered. One of the most successful is the thirteen session course entitled 'Arboriculture 101', offered twice annually since 1996, which is geared towards helping those who wish to earn their arborist license.

The Education Committee is constantly seeking new ways to expand its mission. It is currently looking at ways to more completely involve the membership in choosing, planning and presenting future educational activities.

Allied Member Committee

The purpose of the Allied Member Committee is to further support the mission of the CTPA, by linking the talents, resources and perspectives of the Allied Membership with the direction of the organization as a whole. The Committee also strives to increase the value of membership for the Allied Members.

Finance Committee

The mission of the Finance Committee is to provide oversight in the protection of CTPA's financial integrity. Specific objectives include protecting the membership's interest through careful control of expenses, the protection of CTPA's assets, and the retention of the Association's non-profit status. A key component in the maintenance of financial integrity is a sufficient cash reserve relative to expenses. This reserve will be available to provide funding for periodic, irregular expenses such as legal fees, may be used to cover meeting expenses and will serve as a buffer for anticipated cash flow fluctuations.

The committee will develop and oversee CTPA's accounting system and its money management policies and goals. It will provide the Board of Directors with semi-annual reports and annually updated two year strategic financial plan in order to enhance fiscal management as well as managing the raffle prizes.

Legislative and Enforcement Committee

The purpose of the Legislative and Enforcement Committee is to protect the interests of the Connecticut Tree Protective Association, its members, and licensed arborists, with regards to the laws, regulations and the business climate in the State of Connecticut. The Committee will consist of two or three members. The Committee Chair will be a member of the CTPA Board, and will also serve as the CTPA representative to the Environmental Industry Council.

It is important that the members of this Committee build relationships within the green industry, and with regulators in the DEP and legislators in the General Assembly. It is especially important that the members of this Committee have a strong relationship with the members of the General Assembly's Environment Committee. It will always be a source of pride for this Committee that it continue to win the battle for a strict Arborist Licensing Law, and for strict enforcement of this law. Members of the Committee will always be vigilant, lest hard fought-for regulations not be enforced. This type of 'watchdog' mentality will permeate throughout this Committee, with regards to all issues that may affect the Association and its members.

Executive Oversight Committee

The Executive Oversight Committee oversees the activities of the current Board of Directors, advising the Officers as to the mission of the Association and the necessary activities of the Board. The EOC also serves as the Nominating Committee for officers and Board Members. It is made up of all Past Presidents currently on the Board.

Meeting Planning Committee

The Meeting Planning Committee acts as a steering body and assists the Executive Secretary in exploring avenues to increase attendance and revenue, and enhance educational and recreational opportunities for members and vendors, at the Summer and Annual Meetings. The committee will work with both the Association President and Vice-President in developing the schedule of speakers for the meetings.

Public Relations Committee

The Public Relations Committee generates awareness of and interest in the Connecticut Tree Protective Association. The committee stresses the value and importance of CTPA, to CTPA's own membership, other 'green industry' groups, and to the general public. The committee promotes the message in CTPA's credo that "we advance the care of Connecticut's trees".

1) Event coverage:

The committee will seek to provide coverage for the Annual and Summer Meetings, and other CTPA activities such as the CTPA tree planting ceremony on Arbor Day. Such coverage will be through the outside media, as well as through CTPA's internal reporting mechanisms, such as the Newsletter and the Website.

CTPA Committees

2) Other activities:

The committee may also seek to contribute stories to the public through newspapers and other means on such topics as tree problems and remedies, safety in arboriculture and other tree related topics.

Safety Committee

The purpose of the Safety Committee is to heighten awareness of safety among members of the CTPA and others involved in tree care in Connecticut. The goal of this committee is to reduce workplace accidents and injuries within the tree care profession. This goal can be achieved by working towards a greater recognition that each tree care worker has the right to expect a workplace free of recognized hazards and that all individuals involved in tree care have an obligation to contribute towards the safest work environment possible.

This committee believes it is a primary responsibility of each tree care worker to strive towards becoming knowledgeable in tree care safety standards. It is also a primary responsibility of every tree care worker, from company owner to ground person, to promote and implement safe work practices. The Safety Committee will work towards accident prevention by promoting the following among all involved in tree care in Connecticut:

- ◆ greater understanding of established tree care industry safety standards, including those standards produced by ANSI and OSHA
- ◆ training in the advancement of safe work practices
- ◆ awareness of the steps involved in the implementation of a comprehensive safety program

The Safety Committee will achieve these goals by being aware of safety initiatives occurring both within the industry and outside the industry. The Safety Committee will explore resources that will help CTPA members and others involved in tree care in Connecticut advance in safe work practices. The committee will also encourage the production of educational materials, events, publications and workshops, and the inclusion of speakers on safety at CTPA meetings.

CTPA Committees

Tree Climbing Competition Committee

The Tree Climbing Competition Committee endeavors each year to organize and run a tree climbing competition that is of high quality and fair to all participants and that has, among its purposes, a demonstration of the high degree of skill and dedication to safety that are intrinsic to tree care when properly practiced.

UCONN Partnership Committee

The UCONN Partnership Committee was founded in 2018 after an opportunity opened up to help UCONN's Ratcliffe Hicks School of Agriculture, two year Applied Science degree program. The committee's goal is to stay in communication with UCONN and help in anyway they can so that the major is properly supported while it gains momentum. Ultimately, the goal is to have well rounded, educated students come into the work force ready for the industry.

Code of Ethics for Connecticut's Arborists

The Arborist:

- 1) will utilize personal knowledge and skills for the greatest good to society.
- 2) will advance arboriculture by exchanging knowledge with other arborists and supporting arboricultural associations, publications, schools of instruction and plant research.
- 3) will be truthful in oral or written statements concerning the services he or she is qualified to offer and the benefits to the plants that may be expected therefrom; and will not falsely advertise as certified or licensed, or as insured unless the extent of coverage is clearly stated.
- 4) will discourage the promotion and use of techniques, methods and materials that have not been adequately tested and approved for arboricultural use by reputable plant scientists. Should an unproven technique, method or material appear to be the best choice, the client will be completely advised.
- 5) will base all expert testimony on adequate knowledge of the subject and on substantiated facts; and will render an opinion according to honest convictions.
- 6) will refrain from expressing an opinion on a technical subject, either orally or in writing, unless informed concerning the matter; and will not distort or withhold relevant data to substantiate a point of view.
- 7) will be loyal to clients or to the employing organization and will faithfully perform work assignments.
- 8) will, if a technical judgment in arboricultural matters is overruled by a non-technical authority, present in a clear manner the consequences that may be expected to occur as result of deviating from the procedures and policies which are believed to be correct.
- 9) will not, if employed as an arborist in a public capacity, compete unfairly with arborists in private business; and will not favor one arborist, group of arborists or tree care service above others in the community where all are equally qualified and available.
- 10) will avoid making unfounded statements which, in any way, might injure the professional reputation of another arborist.

Code of Ethics for Connecticut's Arborists

- 11) will not reduce the quoted fee for a specific job due to being informed that another arborist has quoted a lesser fee for the same job.
- 12) will, if engaged in the private practice of arboriculture, refrain from reviewing the work of another private arborist or the latter's employer, but will refer the review of the work to a qualified person not engaged in private arboriculture.
- 13) will not offer employment to an employee of another arborist without the latter's knowledge, but will instead endeavor to train employees wherever possible.
- 14) will uphold the principle of appropriate and adequate compensation for those engaged in arboricultural work, as essential to the maintenance of high standards within the field of arboricultural endeavor.
- 15) will conduct all matters relating to technical arboricultural activities, business operations and civic responsibilities in a manner that will further the status of arboriculture as a respected profession.
- 16) will, if performing tree care services in the State of Connecticut for hire, recognize the responsibility to be licensed by the State of Connecticut.

CTPA Board of Directors 2024

Code of Safety for Connecticut's Arborists

The Connecticut Tree Protective Association recognizes that tree care is a high risk profession that requires proper training and full concentration to be performed safely. It often involves heights, heavy objects, large equipment, sharp tools and, on occasion, exposure to potentially hazardous materials.

As such, safety is a primary responsibility for those involved in tree care. Each individual has the obligation to promote a safe work environment. Safety is both an individual and a team activity, in which everyone must play a part.

In addition, the CTPA offers the following as principles of safety:

- Every tree care company should establish a Safety Plan, through which company safety policies are made familiar to all and that is fully implemented through training and enforcement.
- No one is exempt from safe practices. Safety is an essential component of every job. Everyone is included – from the sales person who writes up the job to the foreman who supervises the crew, to the owner who supplies the resources, and especially, to the workers themselves. All supply the attitude, the commitment and the awareness that prevents accidents and leads to safe work.
- The ANSI Z-133.1 standard provides safety criteria for those engaged in tree care, while OSHA 1910.269 provides the safety regulations with regard to work in proximity to energized conductors. Every employer and supervisor should be familiar with these documents, and every employee should have the benefit of information contained in these standards.
- Communication is a foundation stone of safety and so must be a constant part of everyone's day. This communication must occur at all levels and between all parties, including among workers and between workers and employers.
- Safety training is key to the prevention of accidents. Training must be ongoing, regular, and documented.

Code of Safety for Connecticut's Arborists

- Tree care is a team effort. Safety requires that all members follow the rules.
- Advance planning is a critical factor in accident prevention and emergency response.
- Safety demands constant attention, as even a momentary loss of concentration places safety at risk.
- Safety, like any other professional skill, improves with practice.
- Every tree worker has the right to expect to arrive home safely at the end of the workday. Every employer has the right to expect commitment to the Safety Plan at all levels of the workforce.
