

Week 10 Quiz
Pruning, Cabling and Bracing

1. Which of the following ANSI Standards outlines the safety standards within the Tree Care Industry?
  - a. ANSI A300 Part 1
  - b. ANSI A300 Part 3
  - c. ANSI A42
  - d. ANSI Z133.1

2. Which of the following ANSI Standards outlines the standards for tree pruning within the Tree Care Industry?
  - a. ANSI A300 Part 1
  - b. ANSI A300 Part 3
  - c. ANSI A42
  - d. ANSI Z133.1

3. Which of the following ANSI Standards outlines the standards cabling, bracing and other support systems within the Tree Care Industry?
  - a. ANSI A300 Part 1
  - b. ANSI A300 Part 3
  - c. ANSI A42
  - d. ANSI Z133.1

4. The three step pruning method describes:
  - a. How to position oneself in order to be comfortable while pruning
  - b. How to position oneself on the ladder while pruning
  - c. How to make a pruning cut without tearing the bark off of the underside of the cut
  - d. All of the above

5. The proper place to place a cable is
  - a. One quarter of the way out from the crotch to the end of the limb being cabled
  - b. One third of the way out from the crotch to the end of the limb being cabled
  - c. One half of the way out from the crotch to the end of the limb being cabled
  - d. Two thirds of the way out from the crotch to the end of the limb being cabled

6. Attaching lightning protection to the cabling system is important because
  - a. It provides a pathway to ground should lightning strike the cabling system
  - b. Lightning protection systems have a tendency to come loose
  - c. Lightning protection systems will tend to corrode otherwise
  - d. Aesthetically, it is important that the systems are integrated